MIKE GRAVES

Key Scripture:

Romans 8:16–17 (ESV)

¹⁶The Spirit himself bears witness with our spirit that we are children of God, ¹⁷and if children, then heirs—heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, provided we suffer with him in order that we may also be glorified with him.

Acts 13:22 (ESV)

²²And when he had removed him, he raised up David to be their king, of whom he testified and said, 'I have found in David the son of Jesse a man after my heart, who will do all my will.'

Oceanside's Mission:

Discussion Questions:

For people who don't have a relationship with God, what are the biggest building blocks of their identity? How do those building-blocks affect their priorities & actions?

For you as a believer, is there a particular truth that God has revealed to you which has shaped your identity?

In Romans 8:16-17 scripture calls us "fellow heirs with Christ." How should this truth affect our lives & actions?

Is there anything in your life that needs to come in-line with being an "heir with Christ"? What can you do practically to live fully in this truth? What in your life have you applied this truth practically to already?

Mike referenced on Sunday Acts 13:22 that says King David "was a man after God's own heart." Which characteristic of David in scripture do you think shows God's heart?

For you, which Psalm is the most surprising about how David talked with God? (Examples?)

In what ways is God currently shaping your heart to be more like his? Are there things that you are waiting for God to work on in your life?

Mike talked about the 4 points of Oceanside's mission statement. If you had to pick one, where would you say you are currently situated? In this, what steps are you taking to allow God to do His work?
